Questions to be Answered with Love

I. If you'd make a campaign with the name “Peace Starts in You”, with the objective to mobilize civil society, how would you imagine it to be? What would be the most important things for you to take into consideration? Are there any worldwide examples of successful campaigns you would feel inspired by?

II. If you could create your own organization, how would you imagine the branding process (CI/CD, etc.) and PR work to be? How would you carry out the process in both a perfect scenario with abundant resources available and in the most challenging scenario with limited resources available? Are there any worldwide examples of organizations with successful branding and PR work you feel inspired by?

III. What are the three most valuable skills and qualities you want to share and bring into LOVE FOR LIFE as an Outreach Coordinator?
